

Aircraft Search and Acquisition Services

For over 40 years, CCI has been an industry leader in corporate aircraft search and acquisition services. Clients worldwide have significantly benefited from CCI's expertise, 40+ years of acquisition experience, and our team's diverse skills and industry network. CCI has saved our clients' money and time, and with CCI's experienced advice avoided the pitfalls that can accompany an aircraft acquisition.

The acquisition of an executive aircraft can be complex and something not everyone does every day. A buyer of an aircraft can take advantage of CCI's guidance and advice and that will make a difference in your acquisition. CCI's advisory services are comprehensive and tailored to your specific needs to successfully accomplish your aviation objectives. For some buyers, acquiring an aircraft requires arranging for the professional management and operation of the new aircraft. This process can require complicated assessment and decisions of aircraft management alternatives. CCI can handle those responsibilities and guide the client in finding and incorporating the best flight operations services for existing company flight crews or selecting and hiring a management company.

We invite you to give us a call to discuss your aircraft acquisition goals, questions and how our boutique services can benefit you. CCI has a well-established reputation for performance and integrity and our services are guaranteed. We can provide you with the highest references from previous clients or you can hear and read testimonials from from clients we have served at www.flycci.com. Contact Dennis A. Blackburn, CCI's President and Founder at +1.832.647.7581. Your call will be confidential and promptly handled to get you started toward a successful, totally turnkey aircraft acquisition.
