Next Falcon 900EX to Sell –

12 month / 800 hour Inspection Just Completed

Dassault improved the proven and great family of Falcon corporate jets by upgrading and modernizing the Falcon 900 series. The Falcon 900EX with its more powerful engines, more range and improved avionics maintains the Falcons unequalled short field performance. The Falcon 900EX offers impressive international range, an incredible comfortable and spacious multi zone cabin, and three-engine design that is ideal for transoceanic and transcontinental trips. The Falcon 900EX operates at airports of high elevations and hot temperatures when two engine aircraft are limited. This Falcon 900EX has an impressive pedigree, has always been hangared, and maintained to the highest standard. Call or email us with your questions and to schedule an opportunity to view this pristine Falcon 900EX. This Falcon 900EX will be offered for sale.
